JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

On October 2, 2021, Plaintiff Ashu Shukla filed a letter motion, see ECF No. 67, seeking reconsideration of the Court's order of September 17, 2021, see ECF No. 60, denying his motion of September 16, 2021, see ECF No. 59, styled "Motion Take Judicial notice that Plaintiffs complete opposition to Order# 57." Shukla's latest motion to reconsider is DENIED as frivolous. For avoidance of doubt: Shukla may not file any further motions for reconsideration of the Court's scheduling order at ECF No. 57. More broadly, the Court cautions Shukla, as it has in the past, see ECF No. 37, that further vexatious behavior may result not only in dismissal of this suit, but also in the imposition of a "litigation bar" that prohibits the filing of new lawsuits without prior leave of the Court.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate ECF No. 67.

SO ORDERED.
